Annamalai Set to Resign from BJP in Tamil Nadu

BJP Tamil Nadu President K Annamalai is reportedly planning to resign from the party to start a new political venture.

K Annamalai, a former IPS officer, joined BJP in 2020 and became Tamil Nadu state president in 2021. Under his leadership, BJP has struggled to make significant inroads in Tamil Nadu politics, where regional parties DMK and AIADMK dominate. His potential resignation indicates shifts in Tamil Nadu's political landscape.

- K Annamalai served as BJP Tamil Nadu President since 2021
- Annamalai is a former IPS officer who joined BJP in 2020
- BJP currently has zero MLAs in the 234-member Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly
- Tamil Nadu is dominated by Dravidian parties DMK (ruling) and AIADMK (opposition)
- Annamalai's move could impact BJP's South India expansion strategy
